Markets

Balfour Beatty

Transportation markets

- US Transportation Bill was authorised in July for a period of over two years
 - Visibility and security of funding should help some of the larger highways and transit projects
- Increased focus on fiscal stimulus from the UK and US governments
 - Little impact in the short term
- Certain governments continue to invest in transportation and other infrastructure as the backbone of future economic growth
 - Hong Kong, Middle East

Power markets

- UK power infrastructure
 - Need for investment undiminished
 - Projects held back by lack of clarity in energy policy
- Growing range of opportunities
 - North America, Australia, the Middle East and Africa
 - Both in generation and transmission
 - Across the public and private sectors

Social infrastructure markets

- UK market remains challenging
 - Reduction in public sector capital spend
 - Lack of private sector investment
- Patches of recovery in the US, but not a consistent trend

Strategy

Three stages of strategy

Immediate measures

- Efficiency
- Crystallisation of value from investment assets

Medium-term strategy

- Industry verticals

Long-term view

- Growth in global infrastructure demand

Immediate measures

Efficiency

Phase 1

£30m savings by 2013

- Run-rate of £15m achieved by end-2011
- On track

£50m savings by 2015

- Good progress so far in 2012
- Rationalisation in UK construction
- Tactical cost reduction in Support Services
- Most of the savings to come through in 2013
- Initiatives in US operations and IT in 2013 and 2014

Immediate measures

Crystallisation of value from investment assets

	FY 2011	HY 2012	Total
Number of assets sold	2	2	4
Disposal proceeds (£m)	28	84	112
Gains on disposal (£m)	20	52	72
Directors' valuation (£m)	743	711

- Disposals achieved lower discount rates than in Directors' valuation
- Expect to deliver annual gains of around £30m going forward
- Value of portfolio not expected to diminish

Immediate measures

Positioning for cyclical recovery

- Leaner, stronger operational model
- Margins underpinned by cost efficiency programmes in the near-term
- Strong and efficient balance sheet
- To seize the opportunities for profitable growth when cyclical recovery starts

Medium-term strategy

Industry verticals

Single-capability markets

- Single capability
- UK, US, Hong Kong
- Developed markets

Industry verticals

- Multi-capability
- Global
- Emerging markets

Long-term view

totalpolitics

“Infrastructure matters because it is the magic ingredient in so much of modern life . . . it is the invisible thread that ties our prosperity together”

David Cameron, 19 March 2012

american
manufacturing.org

“Infrastructure shouldn’t be a partisan issue”.

President Obama, 30 April 2012

FIRSTPOST.

“Investment in infrastructure is necessary as means of stimulating global growth . . . It lays the foundation for rapid growth in the longer term while providing an immediate stimulus for their economies and also for the global economy by providing a robust sources of demand”.

Manmohan Singh india’s PM, June 2012, after the G20 released the Los Cabos declaration

Conclusion

- Solid set of results
- Financial performance underpinned by cost savings and asset disposals
- Medium-term strategy to increase exposure to higher growth sectors and geographies
 - Drive performance in key industry verticals
 - Develop new geographies, deploying collective group capabilities
- Well placed to benefit from the long-term global trend for growth
